Florocent Color

Two spools of decorative thread are shown side-by-side on a green artificial grass background. The spool on the left is a light copper or rose gold color and is labeled '118DD' in red text. The spool on the right is a bright yellow-gold color and is labeled '57' in red text. Both spools have a white plastic top cap and a white plastic base. The thread is wound in a consistent, tight spiral pattern around the central core.
